APPENDIX 1 - HISTORY OF FUNDING SUPPORT FOR REFORM IN THE INDEPENDENT SECTOR

Begun in 1993, and fully introduced in 1994, the National Equity Program for Schools (NEPS) subsumed many of the previous targeted programs that aimed to remove educational disadvantage. These included English As, A Second Language, Special Education, Disadvantaged Schools, Country Areas, Literacy and Learning, Students at Risk, Gifted and Talented, Gender Equity and Students with Disabilities programs.

The broad goals of the NEPS were to maximise educational outcomes for students in equity target groups, t
